Description :

PDF-b38bf | How are we to understand the politics of international monetary relations since the end of World War II? Exploiting recently declassified documents from both the United States and Europe and employing economic analysis and international relations theory, Francis Gavin offers a compelling reassessment of the Bretton Woods system of fixed exchange rates and dollar-gold convertibility. Gavin demonstra... Gold, Dollars, and Power: The Politics of International Monetary Relations, 1958-1971 (The New Cold War History)
