Description :

PDF-48bf5 | John P. Gutschlag lovingly describes the student health-insurance industry as akin to a mining town in the Old West. Great risk can lead to great reward, but there's a dark side to this world. With few rules and regulations protecting customers, insurance agents and the business associates they work for are free to commit fraud and fleece students too naïve to know better. In this memoir and ex... The Risk Taker
